News & Updates

- LifeNet partnered with the Gould Family Foundation to assess health facility quality and lead essential trainings with health workers from Kenya, Burundi, and Uganda.
- In the last quarter of 2018, LifeNet was awarded a Medtronic Foundation Opportunity Grant. The grant was designed to invest in “innovative solutions for healthcare delivery efficiency,” and will fund the expansion of LifeNet’s non-communicable disease program in Uganda.

Faces of LifeNet Meet Olive

Olive is a nurse trainer in our Uganda office. Before coming to LN, Olive worked as an ICU nurse. Now, as the header trainer in our study with the Duke Global Health Institute, her work is helping LN to better understand the impact we're having at our partner health facilities.

"I love seeing the difference LN is making in people's lives. With each health facility we start from scratch and as we progress with the trainings you can see a transformation in the facility."
